4. I will maintain lawful, full-time verifiable employment, the nature and duties of which shall be disclosed to and approved by my assigned parole agent.
5. I will make regular, monthly payments toward restitution obligations. The amount of each payment must be at least $75. My parole agent may order higher monthly payments as determined by considering my actual and potential ability to pay and the restitution owed.
6. Upon the request of my parole agent, I will furnish full, complete, truthful and accurate financial and asset information and documents to my parole agent or any state or local official, attorney, agent or victim who is attempting to collect restitution.
7. I will immediately notify my assigned parole agent of any pending civil action against me or any organization or entity of which I am or was a manager, supervisor, investor, agent, principal, owner or partner, including any civil action in which I am or was named as a party, or subpoenaed as a witness.
8. I will allow my parole agent or other trained person acting on behalf of AP&P to conduct searches of my computers, computer records, hard drives, storage devices and other electronic and/or digital media owned by, provided for the use of, or otherwise utilized by me, and I will furnish any other documents and/or proofs relevant to the adequate analysis of my finances. The person conducting such a search may include third parties who are not employees of AP&P.
9. Upon the request of my assigned parole agent or AP&P, I may be required to obtain, cooperate in or submit to an independent financial audit, at my own expense, and performed by a qualified professional approved by AP&P.
10. At the direction of my parole agent, I may be required to participate in and successfully complete: economic crime or theft counseling, education, or treatment; victim empathy classes or groups; or issue-specific or maintenance polygraph examinations.
11. I will not:
  - a. engage in any act, activity, position, employment or other capacity where I am in a fiduciary capacity or other relationship of trust for or on behalf of any other person, group of persons or business, corporate or charitable organization.
  - b. solicit, invest, manage, control, or pledge any funds from any other person, group of persons or business, corporate or charitable organization.
  - c. acquire any new debt or financial obligation, or enter into any financial contract, arrangement, loan, or credit transaction without the express written permission of my assigned parole agent
